

Camilla Lentini

December 17, 1924 - October 24, 2019

Camilla Rozkowski Lentini of Newington was born on December 17, 1924 to Polish immigrant parents in New Britain Connecticut. The middle child of 5, Camilla and her 3 sisters and one brother survived the poverty, hardships and deprivation of life during the Depression years. Thanks to a powerful sibling bond, determination and strong work ethic, Camilla graduated from high school and earned her secretarial credentials. She worked as a stenographer and secretary for Tuttle and Bailey and married Michael A Lentini of New Britain in 1947. After marriage she continued her secretarial position those first years to enable her husband to achieve his electronics technician license within four years. Their work as a team was evident from day one of the marriage. After Mike completed his studies, the couple rented a small store on Winthrop St. in New Britain and began a TV repair business which later grew into Lentini Communications in Newington in 1976. Throughout those years Camilla continued her role as office manager from their home as the family grew with the birth of their four children. She was the quintessential "multi-tasker" as she nurtured and created a loving home, partnered in the business, and maintained strong ties with extended family. She will always be remembered with great fondness and affection by those who crossed her path. And we will always be reminded of her endearing sense of humor, keen wit, and inquisitive mind. She was outgoing, sociable, and kind -- a sensitive soul who could see the goodness of each person and touch the hearts of those around her. Camilla is survived by her children: Alex and his wife, Rhonda, of Cromwell; Larry and his wife, Ginny of Cromwell, and her daughter, Christine of Farmington. She was predeceased by her husband "Mike," their eldest son, Michael in 1989, her sisters Lottie Neidzweicki, Anna Gianoli, Jane Church, and her brother Alexander Rozkowski. She leaves her beloved grandchildren: Athena McAllenney of Westport, Tina Marie of Bristol, Angela Stachelek of Portland, Jillian Kelley of New Britain, Michael Gwiazdowski of Brighton, MA and Christina Hanan of Newington. She was ever grateful for the joy of having great grandchildren: Hunter, Aubrey, Charlie and Teddie, and will be profoundly missed by her many nieces, nephews, and adoring friends.
